The NSRA National Youth Proficiency Scheme course is run by a qualified instructor from the NSRA (National Small Bore Association) using the facilities at Phasels Wood. It covers instruction in the safe conduct and supervision of air-rifle target shooting. A diploma is issued when the course has been successfully completed. The cost at Phasels Wood is £32. There is also an NSRA badge which you can purchase when you have completed the course. Applicants must be 16 years and over.

The course is run for one day and you will need to bring a packed lunch - a warm drink will be provided.
